FUNERAL SERVICE

Body Will Be Taken to Virginia Home for Interment.

Representative in Congress from the Eighth Virginia district, who died yes terday of tuberculosis of the throat, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at 1518 K street porthwest, the home of his brother, Surgeon General Rixey.

The Rev. Dr. Page, of Brandy, Culpeper county, Mr. Rixey's home, will conduct the services. The body will be taken to Brandy at 9:50 o'clock tomorrow morning over the Southern railroad, and will be interred in the family burial ground at Erandy.

The pallbears will be John Lamb, of Richmond, Representative William A. Jones, of the first Virginia district; Epra Hutten, jr., of Richmond; Henry St. George Tucker, of Lexington; Col. Robert E. Lee, of Fairfax; Albert Fletcher Warrenton; George Shackelford, of Orange; Hubert Snowden, of Alexan dria; W. H. W. Meran, of Manassas W. C. Marshall, of Warrenton; C. P. Janney, of Leesburg, J. B. T. Thornton, of Manassas; Judge D. H. Grimsley, of Culpeper, and Medical Director J. C

At the funeral this afternoon will be he committee from the House appoint ed by the Speaker, besides a large representation of the friends and admirers of Mr. Rixey. During his long service in the House he made a host of friends in this city, while across the river in Alexandria, a part of his district, he was the unanimous choice for the Congressional seat.

Mr. Rixey had been troubled with his throat for several years. When the iast session of Congress adjourned, he went South and then to Denver, Col., where he grew better. He returned to this city to take up his Congressional work, but was obliged to go to the mountains of New York. Later he came back here, and was under the care of his brother, the surgeon general.

peper county, Va., August 1, 1854 He graduated in law from the University of Virginia, and practiced his profes sion in Culpeper, being for twelva years commonwealth's attorney of the county. He was elected first to the Fifty-fifth Congress, and was continued in the place until his death. His last election brought him the largest majority he had ever had despite the fact that his illness prevented his making a personal canvass of the district.

WILL APPOINT EXAMINERS TO LICENSE VETERINARIES

In compliance with the recent law enacted by Congress for the regulation of the practice of veterinary medicine in the District, the Board of Commis sioners will take steps at once for the appointment of five reputable practitioners of veterlnary medicine, gradu ates from some recognized college of that school of medicine, to constitute a board of examiners to pass upon all applicants for licenses and keep a reg-istration of all practitioners.
